I. Description of Services

A. Overview

As part of its annual Data Interpretation Project, the California Strong Motion Instrumentation Program (CSMIP) of the California Geological Survey, Department of Conservation (Department) requires the services of a contractor to interpret and analyze strong-motion data on lifeline structure response. The Department intends to award one (1) contract for this RFP.

In general, the goal of the CSMIP Data Interpretation Project is to further the understanding of strong ground shaking and the response of buildings and other structures, and to increase the utilization of strong-motion data in improving seismic code provisions, and seismic design practices, and post-earthquake response. Projects funded as part of the CSMIP Data Interpretation Project are unlike many other grants in that CSMIP projects are contracted with requirements and timetables for products, as opposed to more flexible research grants. CSMIP is advised by the Strong Motion Instrumentation Advisory Committee (SMIAC), a committee of the California Seismic Safety Commission.

B. Period of Performance/Available Funding

The schedule of performance of the Agreement shall be from November 1, 2026, or upon Department approval, whichever is later, through December 31, 2028. The Contractor agrees to start work no later than thirty (30) days after approval, or a mutually agreed upon time. The Department will award a maximum of $100,000 for the Agreement.

Upon mutual consent, the Department and the Contractor may execute amendments to the executed Agreement for time due to schedule conflicts. A variation of the terms (i.e. change in project representative) requires mutual consent from the Department and Contractor and may be done through email. No verbal understanding, or agreement not incorporated into the executed Agreement is binding on either party.

C. Project Representatives

Project Representatives for the Department and the Contractor will be identified in this section after the contract is awarded.

Technical Contract Officer

The Department Technical Contract Officer's responsibilities include monitoring contract progress and reviewing and approving the reports and other information delivered to the Department. The Technical Contract Officer does not have authority to issue technical direction that constitutes an assignment of additional work outside the scope of the contractor or causes a change in the total costs or time required for performance of the contract.

D. Background

The California Strong Motion Instrumentation Program (CSMIP) has instrumented more than 125 lifeline structures in California. Of these lifeline structures, 82 are highway bridges, 26 are dams, ten are port structures and six are tunnels. Most of these structures were extensively instrumented with accelerometers at a selected number of locations. The acceleration records obtained from these structures during earthquakes are routinely integrated and processed by CSMIP to compute velocity, displacement and response spectra. The raw and processed data are available to the users at the Center of Engineering Strong Motion Data (CESMD; <https://www.strongmotioncenter.org>). The CESMD website allows users to search for structures and select strong-motion records. The brief description of the structural system and the sensor locations in each structure are also available at the CESMD.

E. Work to be Performed

Contractor agrees to provide to the Department all services as described herein:

The proposed study should analyze the strong-motion data recorded from selected CSMIP instrumented lifeline structures to further understanding of the seismic responses of these structures. The proposed study should contain at least one of the following objectives:

- i. To validate or improve seismic analysis procedures
- ii. To improve seismic design code provisions and practices
- iii. To increase utilization of strong-motion data in post-earthquake response

Other objectives of relevance to California seismic safety will be considered if their importance is clearly demonstrated in the proposal. The proposed study must utilize CSMIP data. However, the proposed study may supplement CSMIP data with other local or global lifeline structures or ground response data if necessary.

The following five (5) components are required in your response (no page limit):

a. Problem Statement

A clear and concise statement of the specific objectives to be accomplished in the proposed study. The proposed approach for accomplishing these objectives should be clearly described. The proposers should review previous studies and explain how the proposed study will build on the results of previous related studies.

b. Vision

A brief list of existing strong-motion records and other information appropriate for the proposed study. Availability of strong-motion data and other pertinent information for the project's needs should be identified and discussed.

c. Overview of Research Tasks

A brief discussion and analysis of the strong-motion data for the proposed study.

The analysis techniques that will be applied to the data should be described.

d. Research Plan

A work schedule detailing the tasks, milestones and deadlines (incorporating progress reporting requirements provided in Exhibit B).

e. Final Report and Result Dissemination

A plan for submittal of the final report and dissemination of the results, including preparation of the final report and presentation at CSMIP seminars held during the contract term (described in the Progress and Final Reports section).

F. Progress and Final Reports

Reports: The Contractor agrees to prepare the following reports during the course of the Agreement:

1. Progress Reports: Four progress reports are to be submitted. These progress reports will be due at approximately four (4) month increments from the contract start date. These will summarize progress and typically not be over two (2) pages in length.
2. SMIAC Meetings: To review the progress and assist the Contractor in the project work, the Contractor will be requested to present the project progress in the meetings of the SMIAC. CSMIP staff may also meet with the Contractor to review the project progress.
3. Seminar: Project reporting for the Agreement includes participation by the Contractor in two CSMIP Data Utilization Seminars to be held in California. The date and location of the seminars will be determined by SMIAC, and the Contractor will be notified before the seminars. The seminars are a forum for the presentation of project results to members of SMIAC and its subcommittees, to State and local government officials, and to engineers and seismologists involved in the reduction of earthquake hazard in California. To accompany the presentation, a fifteen (15) page paper is to be submitted to CSMIP ten (10) days prior to each seminar. The paper will be published in the seminar proceedings. Travel costs necessary to attend the seminars are to be included in the Contractor's budget. It is required that the Contractor makes the presentation at the seminars.
4. Final Report: The final report on the results of the project shall be prepared according to a standard format to be provided by CSMIP. The report will include a page summarizing the results. The Contractor shall submit by October 1, 2028 the draft final report for review by CSMIP and SMIAC. Comments shall be provided on the draft report, and the Contractor shall forward to CSMIP a copy of the final report by December 31, 2028, incorporating all reasonable alterations and additions requested. CSMIP intends to publish the report, at CSMIP expense, as part of a standard CSMIP Data Interpretation Report Series.

G. Dissemination of Results

The Contractor is encouraged to disseminate data interpretation results to the scientific and engineering communities through papers in refereed technical journals. The State may publish, reproduce, and use technical information developed as a result of the Agreement in any manner and for any purpose, without limitation, and may authorize others to do the same.

Publications:

All reports containing work performed during the project period shall include the following statement:

“The contents of this report were developed under Contract No. 1026-001 from the California Department of Conservation, California Geological Survey, Strong Motion Instrumentation Program. However, these contents do not necessarily represent the policy of that agency or endorsement by the State Government.”

Papers and journal articles shall include the following statement:

“Supported by the California Department of Conservation, California Geological Survey, Strong Motion Instrumentation Program Contract No. 1026-001.”

H. Settlement of Disputes

Any dispute regarding the terms or performance of this Agreement should be resolved informally between the Contractor and the Department Project Representative. If the Contractor and the Department cannot resolve the dispute informally within ten (10) business days, the matter shall be elevated to the Contractor’s Chief Executive Officer (or their designee) and to the Department Division Head (or their designee) for joint resolution.

I. Contractor Evaluation

Within sixty (60) days of completion of the Agreement, the Contractor’s performance will be evaluated by the Department. The Department shall document the performance of the Contractor in doing the work or in delivering the services or which the contract was awarded. If the Contractor did not satisfactorily perform the work or services specified in the contract, the Department shall place one (1) copy of the unsatisfactory form in the contract file and send one (1) copy of the form to the Department of General Services, Office of Legal Services (DGS/OLS) within five (5) working days of completion of the evaluation.

Upon filing an unsatisfactory evaluation with DGS/OLS, the Department shall notify and send a copy of the evaluation to the Contractor within fifteen (15) days. The Contractor shall have thirty (30) days to submit a written response to the evaluation by the Department.

J. Executive Order N-6-22 – Russia Sanctions

On March 4, 2022, Governor Gavin Newsom issued Executive Order N-6-22 (the EO) regarding Economic Sanctions against Russia and Russian entities and individuals. “Economic Sanctions” refers to sanctions imposed by the U.S. government in response to Russia’s actions in Ukraine, as well as any sanctions imposed under state law. By submitting a bid or proposal, Contractor represents that it is not a target of Economic Sanctions. Should the State determine Contractor is a target of Economic Sanctions or is conducting prohibited transactions with sanctioned individuals or entities, that shall be grounds for rejection of the Contractor’s bid/proposal any time prior to contract execution, or, if determined after contract execution, shall be grounds for termination by the State.

K. Generative Artificial Intelligence Technology Use & Reporting

The State of California seeks to realize the potential benefits of GenAI, through the development and deployment of GenAI tools, while balancing the risks of these new technologies.

Bidder / Offeror must notify the State in writing if it: (1) intends to provide GenAI as a deliverable to the State; or (2), intends to utilize GenAI, including GenAI from third parties, to complete all or a portion of any deliverable that materially impacts: (i) functionality of a State system, (ii) risk to the State, or (iii) Contract performance. For avoidance of doubt, the term “materially impacts” shall have the meaning set forth in State Administrative Manual (SAM) § 4986.2 Definitions for GenAI.

Failure to report GenAI to the State may result in disqualification. The State reserves the right to seek any and all relief to which it may be entitled to as a result of such non-disclosure. Upon notification by a Bidder / Offeror of GenAI as required, the State reserves the right to incorporate GenAI Special Provisions into the final contract or reject bids/offers that present an unacceptable level of risk to the State.

Government Code 11549.64 defines “Generative Artificial Intelligence (GenAI)” as an artificial intelligence system that can generate derived synthetic content, including text, images, video, and audio that emulates the structure and characteristics of the system’s training data.

3. Award if made, will be to the highest scored responsible proposal after eligible preferences and/or incentives have been applied.
4. In the event of a tie, award will be determined by a coin toss. The coin toss will be witnessed and documented by two (2) or more Department representatives and the affected Proposers will be invited to attend.

In the event of a precise tie between the low responsible proposal of a certified small business and the low responsible proposal of a certified disabled veteran owned business that is also a small business, the contract will be awarded to the certified disabled veteran owned small business.

5. The proposals that pass the Administrative Criteria Evaluation section, will move onto the Technical Requirements Evaluation. The Technical Evaluation will be performed by an evaluation panel. If deemed necessary, independent academic, technical, or policy experts may be called upon to answer any specific questions regarding any proposal responses. These individuals will not be participants in the scoring process.

There will be no individual sheets, no written scores, and no written notes. There will be one (1) final consensus score sheet for each proposal.

The Technical Requirements Evaluation Criteria Table contains the scoring criteria that will be used by reviewers evaluating proposals submitted in response to this RFP. The evaluation team shall determine a consensus score for each item, based on the team's verbal discussion of each Proposer's responses. To determine the consensus score, evaluators will meet either in person or by teleconference to discuss in detail the strengths, weaknesses, and rating of each proposal to determine scores. The evaluation team will carefully review and discuss the completeness of Proposer's response, as well as clarity of documentation presented in the proposal submitted.

The Department will use the following scoring system to assign points. In the following chart is a list of all considerations that the evaluation team may consider when assigning individual points to a proposal.

Strength	Score	Description
High: No/Minimal Errors	20	Exceptional
	18	Outstanding
	16	Excellent
Medium: Some Errors	14	Very Good
	12	Good
	10	Satisfactorily
	8	Fair
Low: Many Errors	6	Marginal
	4	Poor
	2	Very Poor
	0	Proposer did not address the category or panel cannot evaluate based on materials provided

In assigning points for individual rating factors, raters may consider issues including, but not limited to, the extent to which a proposal response:

- a. Is lacking information, lacking depth or breadth, or lacking significant factor and/or details, and or
- b. Is fully developed comprehensive and has few if any weaknesses, defects or deficiencies, and/or
- c. Demonstrates that the Proposer understands the Department's needs, the services sought, and/or the Contractor's responsibilities and/or

- d. Illustrates the Proposer's capability to perform all services and meet all Description of Services requirements, and/or
- e. If implemented, will contribute to the achievement of the Department's goals and objectives and/or
- f. Demonstrates the Proposer's capacity, capability, and/or commitment to exceed regular service needs (i.e. enhanced features, approaches, or methods, creative or innovative business solutions).

Proposals may achieve a maximum of forty-five (45) cost points, which is weighted at 31% of the total points available. This criterion allows staff to evaluate and compare the budgets of each proposal relative to those of its competitors. Each Proposer must complete the Cost Sheet and Response. Any proposals submitted that are over the expected Department expenditure/budgeted amount of $100,000 will be disqualified.

Example: To help illustrate this process, refer to table below, for an example of the cost score calculation process. Cost figures in the example below explain the calculations and have no other significance.

Cost Evaluation and Scoring Methodology Example

Each Proposer's cost score will be calculated based on the ratio of the lowest cost proposal to the Proposer's cost, multiplied by the maximum number of cost points available 45 as shown in the calculation below:

Lowest Cost Proposal X 45 (Maximum Cost Points Available)

Proposal Cost

Proposer	Grand Total Cost	Calculation	Cost Points Awarded
A	$40,000	$$30,000 \times 45 / $40,000$	33.75
B	$35,000	$$30,000 \times 45 / $35,000$	38.57
C	$30,000	$$30,000 \times 45 / $30,000$	45

Final Scoring Methodology

Proposer	Technical Score (out of 100)	Cost Score (out of 45)	Total Points Awarded
A	80	33.75	103.75
B	85	38.57	123.57
C	90	45	135

In this case the highest scored proposal from Proposer C would be the intended awardee (Subject to Small Business Preference Award).

G. Technical Requirements

Technical Evaluation will be on the response to the following:

The proposed study should analyze the strong-motion data recorded from selected CSMIP instrumented lifeline structures to further understanding of the seismic responses of these structures. The proposed study should contain at least one of the following objectives:

- i. To validate or improve seismic analysis procedures
- ii. To improve seismic design code provisions and practices
- iii. To increase utilization of strong-motion data in post-earthquake response

Other objectives of relevance to California seismic safety will be considered if their importance is clearly demonstrated in the proposal. The proposed study must utilize CSMIP data. However, the proposed study may supplement CSMIP data with other local or global lifeline structures or ground response data if necessary.

The following five components are required in your response (no page limit):

a. Problem Statement

A clear and concise statement of the specific objectives to be accomplished in the proposed study. The proposed approach for accomplishing these objectives should be clearly described. The proposers should review previous studies and explain how the proposed study will build on the results of previous related studies.

b. Vision

A brief list of existing strong-motion records and other information appropriate for the proposed study. Availability of strong-motion data and other pertinent information for the project's needs should be identified and discussed.

c. Overview of Research Tasks

A brief discussion and analysis of the strong-motion data for the proposed study. The analysis techniques that will be applied to the data should be described.

d. Research Plan

A work schedule detailing the tasks, milestones and deadlines (incorporating progress reporting requirements provided in Exhibit B).

e. Final Report and Result Dissemination

A plan for submittal of the final report and dissemination of the results, including preparation of the final report and presentation at CSMIP seminars held during the contract term (described in the Progress and Final Reports section).

The written protest must be sent to the Department of General Services, Office of Legal Services, 707 Third Street, 7th Floor, Suite 7-330, West Sacramento, California 95605. A copy of the detailed written statement should be mailed to the Department. It is suggested that you submit any protest by certified or registered mail.

I. Disposition of Proposals

2. At the time of proposal evaluation, prior to contract award and execution, the Department will verify all proposing firms and identified subcontractors are not listed as tax delinquent by the Franchise Tax Board and the California Department of Tax and Fee Administration. Any proposing firms or subcontractor listed as tax delinquent shall result in a proposal rejection and will not be considered for contract award. Proposing firms wanting further clarification can refer to the statute above or the websites listed below for additional information.

M. Preference Programs

1. Small Business Preference

The small business preference offers certified small businesses or micro businesses a calculation preference in the amount of five percent (5%) of the highest responsible score submitted by a Proposer who is not a certified small business. The small business preference is used as a calculation for determining the highest scored Proposer and does not affect the actual price submitted.

The Department will grant small businesses a five percent (5%) small business preference on their score evaluation when a responsible non-small business:

- Includes in its proposal a notification to the Department that it is a small business or that it has submitted to DGS Office of Small Business and Disabled Veteran Business Enterprise Services (OSDS) a complete application no later than 5:00 p.m. on the proposal due date, and is subsequently certified by DGS as a small business
- Submits a timely, responsive proposal
Has been determined to be a responsive proposer

Proposers having pending Small Business Certification applications under review by DGS concurrent with the proposal timeframe should contact OSDS to request an expedite review/approval of their application in order to be considered for the small business preference during the evaluation of this proposal. Contact OSDS at (916) 375-4940 to obtain information about the application expedite process.

Proposers must notify the Department, in writing, at the time of proposal submission that they have an application for Small Business Certification under review at the OSDS, and that they wish to be considered for the Small Business Preference Calculation.

2. Non-Small Business Preference

Non-small business Proposers will be granted a five percent (5%) non-small business preference when a responsive non-small business has agreed to subcontract at least twenty-five percent (25%) of their proposal with a California certified Small Business if the non-small business Proposer's proposal is not the highest scored. Responding Proposers must:

- i. Include in its proposal a notification to the Department that it commits to subcontract at least twenty-five percent (25%) of its net cost price with one or more California certified small businesses
- ii. Submit timely proposal as specified in the proposal document
- iii. Be determined to be a responsive, responsible proposer
- iv. Identify the California certified small business/small business it commits to subcontract with. The Proposer will list certified small business subcontractor(s) and include their name, address, phone number, a description of the work to be performed, and the percentage (as specified in the solicitation) per subcontractor. The small business subcontractor(s) shall be identified on the Bidder Declaration.

3. Calculating Small Business Preference

The non-small business calculation preference of five percent (5%) is used for proposal evaluation purposes only. Awards made as a result of the non-small business preferences will be awarded at the Proposer's original proposal price. The preference will be computed as follows:

Proposer A, (Highest score) non-small business:	60
Proposer B, certified small business or non-small business subcontracting 25% to a certified small business:	58
Calculation Preference:	$60 \times .05 = 3$
Proposer B	58
Subtract calculated preference:	$\begin{array}{r} +3 \\ \hline =61 \end{array}$

Award is made to Proposer B as the high score of 61.

4. Maximum Allowable Preferences

In no event shall the combined cost of the small business or non-small business subcontractor preferences and preferences awarded pursuant to other provision of law exceed $100,000.00. The five percent (5%) calculation preference is used for computation purposes only and does not alter or affect the actual cost price or the amount of the executed contract. When a certified small business is the highest responsible scorer, then there is no need to compute the small business preference as the small business is the highest scorer.

5. Disabled Veteran Business Enterprise (DVBE) Program

Under California Code of Regulations 1896.99.100, the California DVBE incentive provides responsive/responsible Proposers the opportunity to receive additional incentive calculations. The incentive is applied at the time of RFP evaluation when a Proposer has identified a California-certified DVBE subcontractor to provide services or commodities in support of the overall contract effort. Application of the DVBE incentive may not displace a certified small business high scorer.

The following are elements of the DVBE incentive program:

- i. The DVBE incentive is applied during the evaluation process and is only applied to responsive proposal from responsive Proposers proposing the percentage(s) of DVBE participation for the incentive(s) specified in the solicitation.
- ii. DVBE incentive participation is at the discretion of the Proposer and is optional when overall DVBE program requirements are exempt by the State for that solicitation.
- iii. A Proposer must complete and return the DVBE incentive application request included within this solicitation with their proposal at the time of submission.
- iv. Services or commodities provided by the DVBE firm must meet the definition of Commercial Useful Function (CUF) as defined under Military and Veterans Code 999 (B)(i)(iii) and under California Code of Regulations 1896.71 (I). A DVBE Proposer determined as not meeting CUF regulations will render the responding Proposer ineligible for the DVBE incentive application.

DVBE participation incentives are calculated according to the table below.

DVBE Participation Level	Incentive Applied
Less than 1%	0% Incentive
1% to 1.99%	1% Incentive
2% to 2.99%	2% Incentive
3% to 3.99%	3% Incentive
4% to 4.99%	4% Incentive
5% or Higher	5% Incentive

N. Commercially Useful Function (CUF)

A certified small business, micro-business, or DVBE must meet commercial useful function (CUF) requirements under Government Code section 14837(d)(4). Selected firms must perform a “commercially useful function” relevant to this RFP. A Contractor is deemed to perform a CUF by executing all of the following:

- Is responsible for the execution of a distinct element of the work of the Agreement.
- Carries out contractual obligations by performing, managing, or supervising the work involved.
- Performs work that is normal for its business services and functions.
- Is not further subcontracting a portion of the work that is greater than expected to be subcontracted by normal industry practices.
- Is responsible, with respect to products, inventories, materials, and supplies required for the contract, for negotiating price, determining quality and quantity, ordering, installing, and, if applicable, making payment.
- Its role is not an extra participant in the transaction, contract, or project through which funds are passed in order to obtain the appearance of DVBE participation.

The Department will determine, to the best of its ability, that the Contractor meets the criteria above for CUF. In responding to this RFP, the Proposer is confirming that, under Government Code 14837 (d)(4), your business provides goods and/or services that meet the definition of CUF. All Proposers are required to provide CUF documentation using the Bid/Bidders Declaration, included in this RFP. When completing the declaration, Proposers must identify all subcontractors proposed for participation in the contract. Any Proposer awarded a contract is contractually obligated to use the subcontractor for the corresponding work defined unless the Department agrees to a substitution.
