

LABOR CODE CERTIFICATIONS

Certification	Initial
I am aware of the provisions of Labor Code (LC) §3700, which requires every employer to be insured against liability for workers' compensation or to undertake self-insurance in accordance with the provisions of that Code and I will comply with such provisions before commencing performance of the work of this contract.
It is hereby mutually agreed that the Contractor shall forfeit to the State $200 for each calendar day, or portion thereof, for each worker paid by him or her, or subcontractor under him or her, less than the prevailing wage so stipulated and in addition the Contractor further agrees to pay to each worker the difference between the actual amount paid for each calendar day, or portion thereof, and the stipulated prevailing wage rate for the same. This provision shall not apply to properly registered apprentices.
It is further agreed that the maximum hours a worker is to be employed is limited to eight (8) hours a day and 40 hours a week and the Contractor shall forfeit, as a penalty to the State, twenty-five dollars ($25) for each worker employed in the execution of the contract for each calendar day during which a worker is required or permitted to labor more than eight (8) hours in any calendar day or more than 40 hours in any calendar week, in violation of LC §1777.5, inclusive.
Properly registered apprentices may be employed in the prosecution of the work. Every such apprentice shall be paid the standard wage paid to apprentices under the regulations of the craft or trade at which he or she or she is employed, and she be employed only at the work of the craft or trade to which he or she is registered. The Contractor and each subcontractor must comply with the requirements of LC §1777.5 and any related regulations regarding the employment of registered apprentices.
Each Contractor and subcontractor shall comply with the LC §1776 regarding record keeping.
