INSTRUCTIONS:

1. Response to questions

Item #	Questions	Responses
1.	Given that the current scope outlines a process centered on review of MMPI-2-RF results, would the NCDPS Division of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention be open to considering an alternative or enhanced pre-employment psychological evaluation model that incorporates a battery of assessments (including the MMPI-2RF), along with an interview with a doctoral-level psychologist, provided that the proposed approach meets or exceeds all stated requirements for determining applicant suitability, timeliness, and reporting?	Currently, the NCDPS Division of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention is confident that the existing pre-employment psychological assessment and interview process meets all necessary requirements. As such, the division is not considering any alternative or enhanced evaluation or interview models at this time.
