4.4.3.2.3 TECHNICAL COMPLIANCE DECLARATION

IMPORTANT NOTE: Bidders are strongly advised not to take any deviations or substitutions. Any Major Deviation will result in rejection of the proposal as non-responsive. Any Substitution not either equivalent to or better than what is specified will also result in rejection of the proposal as non-responsive.

4.4.3.2.3.1 Bidder shall declare in the corresponding spaces provided below, all Deviations and Substitutions to the specifications provided in Section 3.3. If a Bidder takes any deviations or provides any substitutions, the Bidder should also make modifications to the descriptive literature submitted with the proposal such that it reflects all deviations and substitutions. Failure to supply the required information in the prescribed manner may disqualify the proposal.

4.4.3.2.3.2 It is the responsibility of the Bidder, when taking any deviation or offering any substitution, to furnish proof via manufacturer's drawing, blueprints, specifications, certifications, or other documentation, that such is equal or superior to the vehicle as specified.

4.4.3.2.3.3 In the event no deviation or substitution is noted, the Bidder must supply the State with exactly what the specifications stipulate. No deviation or substitution will be permitted after proposal opening.
